

Trip to Silicon Valley

Thursday October 12, 2017

Michael A. Soderstrand visits his daughter's office at Cisco and also visits his grandson's day care at Cisco.

SILICON VALLEY

The San Francisco Bay area is the home of virtually every high-tech company in the world. While most of the high-tech companies are clustered around “Silicon Valley” the area around San Jose California – high-tech companies can be found all over the bay area.

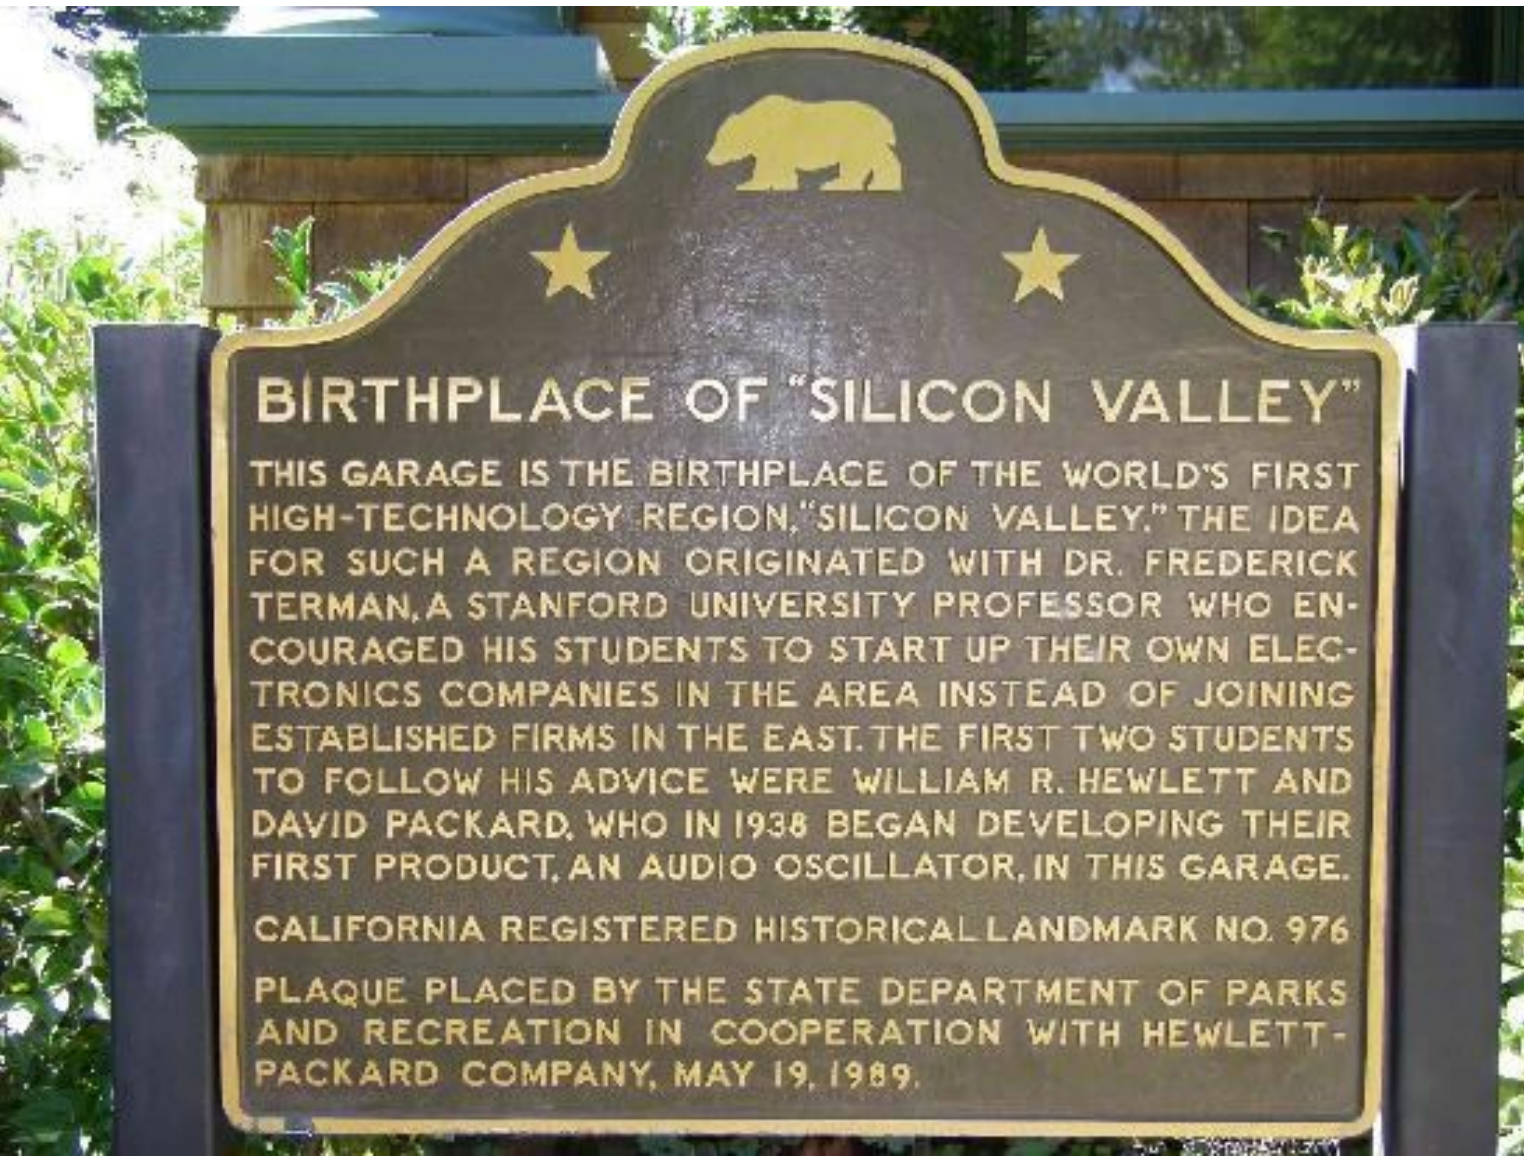

CISCO, where my daughter works, is in the heart of Silicon Valley!

These are the High-Tech Companies of Silicon Valley

HP Was the First High-Tech Company to locate in Silicon Valley

HP Started as a Spinoff of Stanford University in a Garage!

Hewlett-Packard was the first of many high-tech companies to start in a garage in Silicon Valley. Probably the most famous high-tech company to start in a Silicon Valley Garage is Apple. But HP and Apple are only two of dozens of such garage start ups including Google, Amazon and Microsoft.

This is but one of HP's Many locations in Silicon Valley Today
