WHAT IS STONEWALL COLUMBUS PRIDE?

Organized by Stonewall Columbus.

Began with about 200 marchers in 1981.

Now attracts more than 700,000 attendees
over Pride Weekend.

Includes both a Pride March and a large festival in Goodale Park

One of the largest Pride celebrations in the United States.

A NATIONAL-SCALE EVENT

EVENT	APPROXIMATE ATTENDANCE
New York City Pride	1–2+ million
Chicago Pride	~1 million
San Francisco Pride	~1 million
Stonewall Columbus Pride	700,000+

More than 20,000 marchers participate in the parade itself.

The parade travels north on High Street through downtown Columbus.

The festival includes entertainment, food vendors,
community organizations, and multiple stages.

Columbus is among the largest Pride celebrations in the United States.

Most Americans associate the largest Pride celebrations with New York, Chicago, or San Francisco. Stonewall Columbus Pride is smaller than those events but ranks among the largest Pride celebrations in the nation.

A NATIONAL-SCALE EVENT

1 THE MARCH BEGINS

The parade kicks off on High Street with thousands of marchers and enthusiastic spectators.

2 COMMUNITY GROUPS AND ORGANIZATIONS

Local nonprofits, advocacy groups, faith communities, and LGBTQ+ organizations march with pride.

3 CORPORATE AND CIVIC PARTICIPATION

Businesses, unions, schools, and civic leaders show their commitment and support.

4 MUSIC, COSTUMES, AND PERFORMANCE

Music, dancing, creativity, and self-expression make the parade a vibrant celebration of pride.

5 PRIDE FESTIVAL AT GOODALE PARK

The celebration continues at Goodale Park with entertainment, food, vendors, and community.

Most Americans associate the largest Pride celebrations with New York, Chicago, or San Francisco. Stonewall Columbus Pride is smaller than those events but ranks among the largest Pride celebrations in the nation.

One Hour Before the Start of the Parade

People and floats are lined up behind the starting line at Broad and High Streets.
